

ASKS TO DEFEND MAUDE MOORE

Bluff City Lawyer Believes
Girl Who Killed Leroy
Harth Was Justified.

RAISING RELIEF FUND

Knoxville, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Offers of not only financial assistance, but also of legal aid, are being tendered to Maude Moore, pretty telegrapher, who is charged with having killed Leroy D. Harth, prominent business man of this city.

A fund is now being raised by J. M. Martin, of Lonsdale, a suburb of Knoxville, with which to pay off the mortgage on the little home of Mrs. Minnie Moore, mother of the unfortunate girl. This mortgage is for almost $400, stated Hal H. Clements, counsel for the defendant. This comes in addition to the other funds to bear the expense of the defense before the Knox county criminal court next November.

From Bluff City comes a voluntary offer of additional legal aid. B. R. Sams, an attorney of that city, and a stranger to the defendant, has expressed a desire to help in any way possible, explaining that he is of the opinion that she did only what she was forced to do. His letter, written under the date of Sept. 11, and which was received late Saturday afternoon reads:

"Having read the story of the tragedy in which you are involved, and after careful study of your case from what I have been able to get from the papers, I am fully convinced that you acted entirely within your rights and the law.

"A firm belief in your innocence, and a feeling that you were fully justified in the course you have taken, prompts me to offer my services in your defense.

"The privilege of representing your cause is all the fee I ask. I suggest you show this letter to Hal H. Clements."

ents, your counsel, and act upon his advice.

"The assurance of friendship and sympathy extended us in this unfortunate affair is a great help to me," said Mrs. Moore.

"You don't know how proud I am of that letter," Maude Moore declared. "I don't know the man, and never saw him nor even heard of him before. Whether Mr. Clements sees fit to use his services or not, the offer is appreciated more than I can express."

Maude Moore, in speaking of her crime, said: "I am sorry that I had to do it," she sighed, "and even when I did shoot, I hoped that it would not kill him. I didn't want to kill him. I just wanted to protect myself."

She declared her confidence in Martin, the Hunter, who befriended her after the tragedy, and who is charged with being an accessory to the killing. She said that she realized that she could never have had an opportunity to have married Mr. Harth. "But if I had, and with all his money, I would rather have Martin."

She expressed great appreciation to Judge T. A. R. Nelson, of the Knox county criminal court, for reducing Hunter's bond from $5,000 to $1,000.

Mrs. Moore, who is employed at a local clothing factory, said that she had made only $3.50 last week. She told about going after her money Saturday morning.

Felt Like Marked Person.
"I felt like a marked person and could scarcely hold up my head when I went in," she related. "But I soon saw that I had no reason to be ashamed. My friends were very comforting to me."

SUNDAY OPENS HERE ON NOV. 2

Dr. J. B. Phillips Makes Official Announcement Monday Morning.

Rev. W. A. ("Billy") Sunday, noted baseball evangelist, will open a six weeks' evangelistic campaign in Chattanooga on Sunday morning, Nov. 2.

Announcement to this effect was made by Dr. J. B. Phillips, chairman of the local conservation committee, at the meeting of the pastors' association Monday morning.

The work of preparation incident to the coming of Rev. Sunday was outlined by Chairman Phillips.

On the second Thursday night in October cottage prayer meetings will be begun in the city and suburbs and continue until Thursday night before the opening of the campaign.

Between 175 and 300 cottage prayer meetings will be held on each Thursday night at the same time in different sections of the city.

Other preparation work will be outlined a little later.

Assistants Secured.
Two men have been engaged by Dr. Phillips to assist in the arduous duties that lie before him and his committee. A secretary and a special man to look after cottage prayer meetings are now on the job.

When Dr. W. H. Pitzer, Sunday's advance man, was here last week Dr. Phillips took up with him the matter of the churches closing only the first and last Sunday of the campaign.

He told Dr. Pitzer that the plan was to raise $15,000 in advance. This plan met with the approval of Dr. Pitzer. The question of the churches closing was also taken up at a meeting held during the advance man's stay in the city.

When Dr. Pitzer returned to Rev. Sunday he discussed the matter with him. A telegram received by Dr. Phillips from Dr. Pitzer Sunday morning is self-explanatory.

The telegram, which came from Davenport, Ia., where Sunday opened a revival Sunday, follows:

"Mr. Sunday agrees to ministers' proposition that they have all Sunday morning services except the first and last. He expects that $15,000 be raised in advance for local expenses. He urges you to bend every effort possible to build a tabernacle on downtown lot. He will not consent to tent unless tabernacle is utterly impossible."

On the first Sunday of the campaign the work of organization will be undertaken. It is desired that the last Sunday be made a great day for Rev. Sunday.

Money for Tabernacle.
Dr. Phillips said that not at of the $15,000 that is to be raised in advance goes to "Billy" Sunday; that every dollar raised now and during the first two or three weeks of the campaign will be used toward paying for the tabernacle and in meeting incidental expenses. During the last two or three days of the meeting a free-will offering especially for Rev. Sunday will be taken.

It was pointed out by Dr. Phillips that at other places where Sunday has held revivals the churches closed on the Sabbath throughout the campaign.

Held in High Esteem.
Few if any medicines are more highly esteemed than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy by those who have used it for years as an occasional required and know its real value. Mrs. W. Cogswell, Andrews, Ind., writes: "I have a high opinion of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is the best medicine on the market for diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. My mother used it for years before I was married and still keeps it in the house."—(Adv.)

CITY FOOD SALE STARTS TUESDAY

9 O'clock Is Hour Set by Commissioner Wassman and Force of Salesmen.

COST BILL MISSING

All is in readiness for the city's sale of its carload of government foodstuffs at the Markhouse Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The price list has not been completed by Commissioner Wassman's department pending the receipt of invoice, showing cost to the city, from Atlanta Military authorities. There have not furnished the department with a bill showing the cost and for that reason the publication of an authentic price list now is not practicable, stated the commissioner Monday. The only item of expense known so far is the freight which totaled $185.

Should the price list from Atlanta not be available, a list similar to the one published by the local postoffice will be used. This covered the cost of the goods plus the postage from Atlanta.

Seven members of the city fire department have been detailed by Commissioner Herron to assist with the sale. Commissioner Wassman, his secretary, McKinley Hays; T. P. Mahoney, scaler of weights and measures, and Clyde Garrett, assistant scaler of weights and measures, will also be on hand. No ceremony of any kind will feature the opening. Commissioner Wassman stated.

It was not known Monday whether the bazaar ordered, which comprises fifty cases, would be on hand Tuesday morning or not. When Commissioner Wassman took the matter up with zone surplus supply officers at Atlanta recently, he was told that every effort would be made to have the number of cases desired here by the time the sale opens.

List of Food.
Employees of the department were busy all of Saturday and most of Sunday weighing the articles in five and ten-pound packages preparatory to the sale. T. P. Mahoney, scaler of weights and measures, weighed each article with thoroughly tested scales and there will be no short weights.

List of Goods.
The goods to be sold, aggregating 50,567 pounds, are listed as follows: Apples, evaporated; 25 cases. Asparagus, 50 cases. Beans, baked, No. 3; 100 cases. Beans, stringless, No. 2; 50 cases. Man From Rome, Ga., Indorses MENDOL

Mr. Jim Davis Says He Was in a Bad Shape for a Long Time—Upon the High Recommendation of MENDOL He Buys a Bottle of It—After Taking Four Bottles He Gets in Perfect Shape—He Gains One to Two Pounds Every Week That Passes.

People from different parts of United States continue to make their statement about the wonderful results they have obtained from the use of the widely known great oriental tonic of Dr. Avakian, MENDOL. The following is the indorsement of Mr. Jim Davis, of Rome, Ga. Read every bit of it and find out about the good results he has obtained from MENDOL.

"Yes, sir, I was in as bad shape as anybody ever could be. I was going downhill every day. I did not know what it was to see a good day for a long, long time. My life was a burden and I was absolutely useless in the world. All day I felt sluggish and drowsy, restless and nervous—had no life about me. Nothing had any attraction for me. If it was appetite, I did not have it. The trouble I used to have with my stomach was enough to get anybody wild. Nearly everything I ate caused considerable pain in my stomach. What little I did eat soured on my stomach and in a short while you would see me cramping to death from indigestion. My bowels were in a bad shape also, so was my liver and heart. My nerves were all to pieces. I don't believe there was any part of my body that was in good shape. I was a perfect wreck. I am sure that if I had not started on MENDOL I would have been dead by now. But, thank goodness, that I tried MENDOL, which has saved my life. Altogether, I have taken four bottles of MENDOL and the good I have received from them is worth more than anything in the world to me. I now find myself going up hill every day instead of down hill. I gain two pounds every week and every day in the week is full of life and interest to me. My worst enemy could not call me sluggish or without energy now. I am free from nervous troubles. My digestion is perfect (my appetite tests it all the time). I am entirely free of all stomach troubles. MENDOL is the tonic for a run-down system. By the help of MENDOL, you can renew your health, you can recuperate and be happy. I heartily agree with the man who said 'MENDOL IS THE WORLD'S GREATEST TONIC'."

MENDOL's exclusive agency is removed. MENDOL is now sold by all druggists in Chattanooga and suburbs. Manufactured by Dr. V. A. Avakian.
